State of Alabama Unified Judicial System Form C-81 11/91	ADVICE OF RIGHTS ON INITIAL APPEARANCE BEFORE JUDGE OR MAGISTRATE (Felony)	Case Number
--	--	-------------

IN THE _____ DISTRICT _____ COURT OF _____ JEE _____ COUNTY

☒ STATE OF ALABAMA ☐ MUNICIPALITY OF _____
v. EDDIE FOREMAN, JR., Defendant

This is a first appearance hearing. You are charged with committing the felony offense(s) of _____ in this Court in violation of _____ ROBBERY III. The primary purpose of this hearing is to ensure that you know and understand the charge or charges against you. At this hearing, there will be no determination made about your guilt or innocence of the crime charged, but only a determination that you know and understand the charge or charges against you. If you are before the Court on a complaint following a warrantless arrest, the judge or magistrate will determine whether there is probable cause for the charge against you.

In addition, the purpose of this hearing is to determine whether bail should be set in your case, or, if it has been already set, if it should remain the same, be raised, be lowered, or whether you should be released upon your personal recognizance (that is, your promise to appear for future court proceedings) or released in the custody of some responsible person. In order to make this determination, it will be necessary for the judge or magistrate to ask you some questions concerning your ties with the community.

You are entitled to be represented by an attorney. You have a right to have your own attorney and will be given time and opportunity to retain an attorney. If you are unable to afford an attorney, one will be appointed for you by the court if you qualify for such representation. It will be necessary for you to complete an indigency questionnaire under oath in order for the court to make this determination.

You have a right to talk with your attorney, family, or friends, and if necessary, reasonable means will be provided in order to enable you to do so. You have the right to remain silent. Anything that you say may be used against you.

Because you are charged with a felony, you are entitled to demand a preliminary hearing before a judge or magistrate to determine whether there is sufficient evidence to establish that you probably committed the offense or offenses with which you are charged. You must make this demand within thirty (30) days of the date of arrest. If a hearing is demanded and one is conducted, and, if at the conclusion of the preliminary hearing the judge finds that sufficient evidence has been shown to establish that you probably committed the offense or offenses with which you are charged, the judge will then bind you over for further action by a grand jury. If, on the other hand, the judge finds that the evidence is insufficient to establish that you probably committed the crime or crimes charged, then the judge will dismiss the charge and discharge you from further custody or pre-trial obligations subject to the right of the prosecution to reinstate the charges against you at a later time.

If you are released from custody (whether personal recognizance or otherwise), you must:

- 1.) Appear to answer and submit to all orders and process of the Court having jurisdiction in the case.
- 2.) Refrain from committing any criminal offense.
- 3.) Not depart from the state of Alabama without the leave of the Court having jurisdiction of this case.
- 4.) Promptly notify the Court of any change of address or phone number.
- 5.) Other conditions: _____

The provisions of the Release Order may be revoked or modified by the Court for cause. The Release Order and any appearance bond executed in compliance with it will continue in force and effect until the dismissal, acquittal, or conviction on the charges, unless sooner revoked or modified by the Court. Upon report of a violation of any of the above conditions, a warrant for your arrest will be issued.

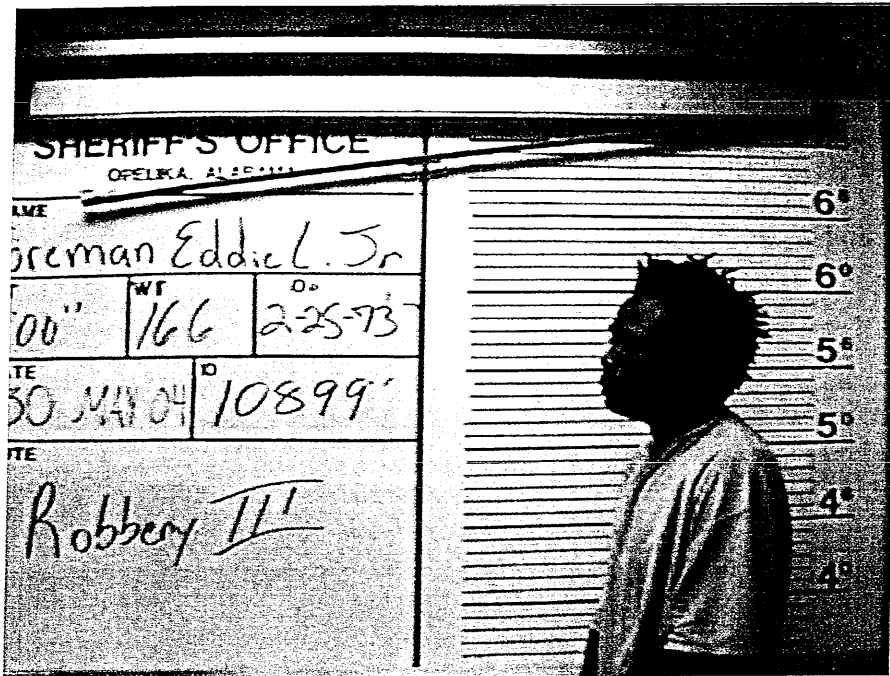

Date: 6-1-04

Judge/Magistrate

I have read or have been advised of the matters herein set forth. I understand the explanation of procedures, rights, and information given to me at the Initial Court Appearance. I understand the conditions of my release and the penalties applicable in the event that I violate any conditions imposed herein. I also understand that failure to appear as required may subject me to additional charges in the revocation of release.

Dear Sgt. Roberson,

I am writing on behalf of my client Kenyetta Foreman. Mrs. Foreman is in the process of applying for Ford Stamps however she can not complete this process without some type of verification that her husband Eddie Lewis Foreman is being held there. If you would send me some type of verification that he is being held there it would be greatly appreciated.

Thank You,

Frances A. Jones

Lee County Circuit Court CC-96-493.

Offense:

Sale/Cocaine.

Sentence:

15 years as an Habitual Offender.

Date of Sentence:

5-3-96.

Details of Offense:

On February 29, 1996, Officers of the Opelika Police Department arrested Eddie Lewis FOREMAN, Jr. on an outstanding writ of arrest. Officers were booking FOREMAN in the Opelika City Jail and noticed that FOREMAN was chewing on something white and was trying to hide it. The officer ask FOREMAN to open his mouth. FOREMAN opened his mouth and the officer saw an off-white substance in FOREMAN's mouth that looked liked crack cocaine. The officer asked FOREMAN to spit the substance out, but FOREMAN refused. The officer then physically took FOREMAN to the floor and began to remove the substance from FOREMAN's mouth. The officer recovered a small amount of substance from FOREMAN's mouth, before he could swallow all of it. Paramedics were then called to the city jail to treat FOREMAN. The officer then placed FOREMAN under arrest for Unlawful Possession or Receipt of Controlled Substance. FOREMAN was then transported to the East Alabama Medical Center and treated for cocaine overdose. FOREMAN was treated and then brought back to the Opelika City Jail and placed into a cell.

On February 29, 1996, officers advised FOREMAN of his Miranda Rights and FOREMAN refused to signed a waiver of rights form.

On 2-29-96, a warrant was signed on Eddie Lewis FOREMAN charging him with Unlawful Possession or Receipt of Controlled Substance.

On 2-29-96, officers transferred Eddie Lewis FOREMAN, Jr. from the Opelika City Jail to the Lee County Jail, where he was held in lieu of bond.

On March 4, 1996, the evidence in the case was taken to the Department of Forensic Sciences Lab. The results of the analysis indicated that the off-white substance revealed the presence of cocaine, the weight in grams was 0.046, cocaine is a Scheduled II Controlled Substance.
